Child Development Center

Celebrate the time of harvest at the Fall Harvest Carnival Oct. 28 from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. in the Child Development Center's parking lot. There will be games, prizes and food for children of all ages. Tickets will be sold at the carnival.

Be a hero; win a family vacation

By Mrs. Connie Holt
99th Services Squadron

Spend time with your children while using services facilities and you could win a family vacation get-a-way.

Air Combat Command's "Be a Hero" contest gives parents and children a chance to spend time together and win great prizes. This year the drawings include eight weekly prizes for vacation get-a-ways and a drawing for a $200 AT&T long-distance voucher.

To join in the fun, just ask for a "Be a Hero" card at the following Services facilities: Nellis Boys & Girls Club, Child Development Centers I & II, Base Library, Tickets and Tours, Community Center, Enlisted and Officers' Clubs, Bowling Center, Golf Course, Time Out Sports Bar & Grill, Outdoor Recreation, and Skills Development Center.

Spend time with your children using these designated services programs and get a stamp for each activity. Five stamps are needed to enter drawings.

Be first to get a slice of the new nine

By Ms. Janice Kimmel
99th Services Squadron

The Sunrise Vista Golf Course opens the "Thunderbird Nine" course with a grand opening tournament Oct 7.

The field is limited to the first 144 paid entrants.

Entry fee is $60 per player and includes green fee, cart, prizes and barbecue lunch. Deadline to enter is tomorrow.

With the addition of the "Thunderbird Nine," Nellis is now a 36-hole, championship golf course.

"The new nine was designed to be a challenge to the low handicapper and stimulating for the mid to high handicapper. Each hole has been named after a Thunderbird maneuver. When mature, it will be by far the best nine on the course," said Mr. Leo VanWart, director of golf.

"The new course was funded by the Air Force Morale Welfare Board at a cost of $3.6 million to improve the quality of life at Nellis," said Ms. Nell Wucherpfenning, Non-appropriated Funds financial officer. "Every time people use the services facilities around the world, they contribute to the improvement of all Air Force services facilities."

The golf course must be self-supporting. Through fees, it pays for maintenance, personnel, utilities, and equipment.

"Last year was a banner year for the number of rounds played at Sunrise Vista," said VanWart. "The course can accommodate over 200 players at any one time."

"Now we need a new clubhouse," he said. "Due to the growing number of customers, we've forwarded a request to Air Force Headquarters asking for non-appropriated dollars to expand the clubhouse in the near future."

The Phantom and Thunderbird courses are closing for maintenance until Oct. 7. The Eagle and Falcon courses will close Oct. 9 through Oct. 28. For more information, call Sunrise Vista Golf Course at 652-2602.

Family talent contest

By Ms. Connie Holt
99th Services Squadron

"The family that gets up on stage and performs together, stays together." Isn't that how the old cliché goes? If not, it should be, as the Nellis community center hosts the 2000 Family Talent Contest.

On Nov. 3, the community center invites moms, dads, sisters and brothers to sing, dance and perform together in this family-oriented event. Contestants can enter in one of six categories: Parent and Child Team, Husband and Wife Team, Children (ages 3 through 7), Pre-teens (ages 8 through 12), Teens (ages 13 through 18) and Family.

"We invite everyone to come enjoy a fun evening of entertainment and cheer on your friends and neighbors," said Ms. Rosie Ward, Community Center manager. "Winners of our local contest will be videotaped and submitted to the Air Force-level competition." Winners at the Air Force-level will receive certificates of achievement and U.S. savings bonds, she said.

Interested families should contact the community center at 652-5014 to get more information about category requirements and other details about the show.

So dust off those musical instruments, start working up that dance routine, learn your favorite family songs and enter now.

Sign up by Oct. 16. Participants receive a "Hero" stamp.

Base Talent Show

By Ms. Connie Holt
99th Services Squadron

Active duty, retirees, Department of Defense civilians and dependents are eligible to participate in the Base Talent Show set for Nov. 17 at 7 p.m. at a location to be announced. Talented performers are encouraged to sign up, but only active duty personnel have the chance to be selected for "Tops in Blue," the Air Force entertainment showcase.

Volunteers are also needed for sound, lights, setup and tear down. If you would like to be a part of this popular event, please call the Community Center at 652-5014.
